This well-positioned property has potential written all over it for various buyers. It is an ideal first home, an improver/renovator or a sound investment/development proposition.

Built in the post-war period when homes were made to last, the classic red brick home, in almost original condition, has stood the test of time.

It features three bedrooms (one with robes), a spacious lounge, separate kitchen and dining rooms, a three-piece bathroom, an internal toilet, laundry and ample storage.

Original features are a terracotta-tiled roof, high ceilings, polished timber floors, a tapestry brick fireplace in the
